ROUTE DESCRIPTION (Updated October 2017)

PLEASE REMEMBER TO TAKE GREAT CARE WHEN CROSSING ROADS

Leave Queen Street Station using exit to George Square. At road, go straight ahead along right-hand side of George Square. At next road junction go straight ahead into Queens Street and after approx. 50m (immediately before Museum of Modern Art) turn right. Follow walkway with museum on left to pass under archway with 'Royal Exchange Square' sign on it, to reach T-junction with Buchanan Street. Turn left and immediately turn right into Gordon Street. At crossroads go straight ahead and at next crossroads cross Renfield Street and go ahead to reach Glasgow Central Station on left. Turn left to enter station and once on the station concourse, turn around and in front of you in the middle of the entrance is an ornate plaque in memory of the men of the Caledonian Railway during World War 1. Look to your left and stood on the ground is a World War 1 memorial shell.

Exit the station using the same entrance you came in and at the road turn left to reach T-junction by Grand Central Hotel. Turn left into Hope Street and follow road to reach crossroads (with the Central Station Bridge on left). Go straight ahead and follow road to reach crossroads with bridge ahead. Turn right to cross road (Oswald Street) and immediately turn left to cross road using pedestrian crossing. Bear right and immediately left in front of Grosvenor Casino to go down steps to reach river.

Q.1 Looking at the signpost, how long will it take to walk to The Peoples Palace?

At first bridge (Bells Bridge), go straight ahead to pass Crowne Plaza on right to reach next footbridge. Continue ahead and after approx. 200m and at end of riverside path, turn right and immediately left on Stobcross Road (heading towards York Hill, Riverside Museum and Partick). Take first turning on left (Stobcross Road) to reach mini roundabout.

Q.2 In front of you is a square clock tower. Above the bottom window/door is a date - what is that date?

Turn right to cross road and then use pedestrian footbridge to cross main road. From the footbridge if you look to your left towards the Clyde, there is usually a Tall Ship moored next to The Glasgow Transport Museum. At the end of the footbridge, go ahead to pass under the railway and immediately turn right. Pass Fire Station on left, then take second turning on left into York Hill Street. After 50m & at crossroads, turn right (Haugh Road - but no sign). Follow to reach road junction by the Islay Inn. Go straight ahead and at next crossroads go straight ahead onto tree lined road passing Kelvingrove Tennis & Bowls Club and Kelvingrove Museum & Art Gallery on left to reach bridge. (4½ km)

At next path junction go straight ahead towards Maryhill Locks and keeping river on left, pass under another bridge and uphill to reach path junction. Bear left and go ahead on tarmac walkway with river to left and follow ignoring all turnings to reach road. CROSS ROAD WITH CARE and go ahead on cycleway/footpath passing metal barriers heading towards Maryhill Locks. Follow tarmac walkway and at next path junction, bear left downhill to re-join riverside. Pass weir and after approx. 60m, bear right to reach path junction with bridge to left (do not go under bridge). Turn right and after approx. 30m, turn left towards Maryhill Locks. Follow path uphill as it zigzags right then left to reach canal. Turn right on canal towpath with canal on left and follow tarmac towpath to reach flight of locks (note the disused dry dock between Locks 23 & 22). Beside Lock 22 is an information board. (8½ km)

Q.3 When was the dry dock last used?

Follow path to passing Lock 21 and continue ahead on towpath keeping canal on left. Follow towpath, ignoring all side turnings for approx. 800m before turning right to reach Stockfield Junction. The main canal heads off to the left towards Falkirk and The Forth Estuary and the route ahead is the Glasgow branch of the canal (Note plaque in wall on bridge). Continue ahead on Glasgow branch keeping canal on left heading towards City Centre. Follow towpath ignoring all turnings and heading towards Spires Wharf & City Centre. (11 km)

Q.4 Under Bridge 53 is a plaque – when was it opened?

Follow tarmac towpath as it bears right and away from canal. Bear left and continue to follow tarmac path with water on left. Continue to follow pathway as it re-joins canal. After a short while you will reach a small basin where there is a row of whitewashed buildings on the opposite side of the canal - these were built as warehouses and are the oldest remaining on any canal in Scotland and today is the home of Scottish Canals. Bear left and continue to follow towpath keeping canal on left towards Spires Wharf. After the canal turns right and passes under electric pylons, continue ahead to enter Spires Wharf.
